books and paintings of the last few years have been saturated with the spirit of religion, and many of them avow nothing less than a conversion of their authors. So in Germany the formerly prevalent literature of the superman, with which the academic youth of that country went into the field, is giving way to a new type of literature that instead of maximizing subordinates self to service. Thus in France and Germany where culture had become most independent of the church, we have a comprehensive and church, we have a comprehensive and spontaneous revival of a spirit that is nothing less than a conversion spontaneous revival of a spirit that is truly Christian and suggests Augustine's phrase that the soul of man can never find true rest save in God. I. It's Distinctive Military System. This I. Its Distinctive Military System. This has severed for it the name of the "West point of the South." It tends to muscular development and physical health by an enforced regularity in food, sieep and exercise. It creates habits of promptitude, order, discipline and subordination. It fosters self-reliance and force of personal character by removing all extraneous distinctions, and casting each youth, whatever his antecedent circumstances. In his own individual responsibility. It sequal, uniform and wholesamely restraining, without rigor.

II. Its Distinctive Academic Curriculum. This embraces the study of English, History, French or Spanish, German or Latin, Mathematics, Physics, Geology, Mechanics, Surveying, Chemistry, Drawing, Law, Economics, Literature, Practical Science.

III. Its Trechnical Scientific Courses, Provision is made for the members of the second class to elect between the courses of civil Engineering, of Analytical and Applied Chemistry and of Electrical Engineering. These courses are of one and a half years duration, and are illustrated by continuous field and laboratory practice. The Department of Engineering is theroughly equipped with instruments and models; and the chemical, physical and mineralogical laboratories have all appliances for thorough practical instruction.

IV. Its Distinctive System of Instruction, unely, dividing of classes into sections, shereby the students are accurately graded, and each secures a share of the personal stiention of the instructor. The success of the educational work of the school turns largely on this method.

V. Its Economy. The expenses are: Pay cadet, $425 a year: Virgina cadets, tuition free, $225 a year. State cadets, $165 a year.

This estimate includes tuition, board, fuel This catinute includes tuition, board, fuel and lipints, washing, room rent, medical attendance of the most careful character, ciothing, books, stationery and all necessary expenses, and falls below that of any institution of like grade in this country.
